TAIWAN SOURCES LIST EVIDENCE
OF CHINESE COMMUNIST WAR PREPARATIONS

Taihoku, 11 July -- According to a Taihoku source and a reliable Chinese mainland source, the Peiping government has ordered efforts toward war preparations to be redoubled during the present cease-fire talks in Korea. These sources claim that the Peiping authorities have issued the following five-point directive to intensify preparations for a bigger war in the future:

1. Continue the "airplane-donation movement" to build up a strong air force.
2. Organize the workers to "increase production and reduce waste" to expand the wartime productive capacity.
3. Mobilize all middle-school and university students into the military forces.
4. Systematically complete the air-defense program throughout China.
5. Push the sales of patriotic bonds to increase war funds, and fulfill the patriotic pledges.

KMT sources in Taiwan stress that the Chinese Communists are preparing for a third world war. These official and nonofficial reports should not be ignored but should be taken seriously because most of their claims have come true in the past.

In the past, these sources claimed that Mao Tse-tung and Stalin would meet and agree on a Chinese Communist-USSR Alliance against Western Nations. This has come true. They claimed that the Chinese Communists had sent troops into the Northeast to enter the Korean War. This is also true.

Today, the KMT sources are saying that the Chinese Communists are busy preparing for a total international war. They list the following as proof for their claims:

The Chinese Communists have been building new railroads and highways. They have been expanding airfields and are in the process of total mobilization of all able-bodied persons. The Communists have ordered conscription of 3,000 able-bodied persons from each of the 108 hsien in Shantung. The Communists have built underground hangars at T'ai-yuan and Lan-chou.

The KMT sources are of the firm opinion that the present cease-fire talks will not bring about a permanent peace and that as soon as UN troops leave Korea the Communists will take over all Korea.
